The family of Eishia Hudson has filed a civil claim for damages, 20 months after the 16-year-old was fatally shot by a Winnipeg police officer following a robbery and subsequent chase.

Cochrane Saxberg Barristers & Solicitors filed the statement of claim Wednesday with the Manitoba Court of Queen's Bench on behalf of the family.

Two unnamed Winnipeg police officers are named in the claim for "acts of recklessness, carelessness, and negligence that resulted in the death of Eishia," a news release from Cochrane Saxberg said.
